

I live in a small community in Northern New Jersey. We are bombarded 24/7 with garbage (most of it) emanating from NYC. We need some alternative which will serve our communities and Low Power FM seems to be the answer. Please listen to our pleas, and do all you can to enable our communities to utilize this 21st Century means of community life.